FEBRUARY 2007

Revival In El Verano

Rev. Marc Carr is the pastor of Craig Avenue Baptist Church in El Verano, CA

... because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

Acts 2:6b

The Craig Avenue Baptist Church sat nestled at the foot of the mountains among grape vineyards and fields. There was a certain amount of expectancy this morning as one would have entering unknown territory and knowing that this was God's appointed time in this very special place.

Bro. Bill was invited for Sunday morning and Sunday evening services, praying that many would come to hear the Word preached. Pastor Carr said they averaged about 10 - 12 people on a Sunday morning and that the congregation was mostly retired people with a few kids here and there. The average age was about 70. Bro. Bill said that was fine, we'd pray the rest in!

That morning there were 25 to 30 people as a result of the churches dedicated efforts to let the community know that there would be special meetings this Sunday at Craig Avenue Baptist. The churches in the Sonoma Ministerial Association were sent flyers, and flyers were put up in the Visitor's Center, 7-11's, and various places around town. The local media were also given announcements to print and broadcast.

When Bro. Bill arrived, he asked the pastor if there was something in particular on his heart for his congregation and Pastor Carr said to "do as the Lord leads!" That's always a safe road to take!

The message God gave was Sin In The Church. If you have ever heard this message, you know that it pulls no punches and you have to do some pretty fancy dancin' if you don't want your toes stepped on!

As Bro. Bill preached, the Spirit moved. The invitation was given and several came forward! Some were first time decisions for Jesus and the pastor's wife, Esther, dealt with these precious souls. You see, they didn't speak English, yet they said, "We heard the message in our language!" And Bro. Bill does not speak Spanish! That morning they had Pentecost! These precious people prayed the sinner's prayer in Spanish and their names were written in the Lamb's Book of Life!

The announcement was made that Bro. Bill would be giving his testimony that evening and each one was invited to bring a friend to hear an amazing story of forgiveness that gives the hopeless and down-trodden HOPE!

In the afternoon, this little church allows a group from the Figi Islands to use their sanctuary for worship. Pastor Carr asked if their Praise and Worship team would lead the music that evening. It was time for the service to begin and the music filled the room. Both Bro. Bill and the pastor were a bit disappointed because there were only a handful of people present. By the time the Praise team was finished, the sanctuary was packed out!

Several churches were represented as well as many foreign speaking people! Bro. Bill gave his testimony and once again, the Spirit moved and the Lord blessed with about 10 people receiving Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior!

Hallelujah!

One man said he bought a suit so that he could come to church. The pastor said that what was important was the man's heart, not his clothes! One lady, who said she was an Italian Catholic received Jesus, and called her sons to come to church. They have become regular attendees.

That day there were rededications and renewed relationships with Jesus and family members!

The fire continues to burn! Praise His Name!

What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the Lord our God is near us whenever we pray to him?

Deut 4:7

The name alone sends shivers down a spine. From the mid 1930's until the mid 1960's, Alcatraz was America's premier maximum-security prison, the final stop for the nation's most incorrigible inmates.

While in California for Revival, I had the opportunity to visit Alcatraz ~ more out of curiosity than anything else. Believe it or not, when I checked out the list of inmates, I recognized names of people I knew in my "old" life!

Praise God, He found me before it came to that, although the prisons I was in looked about the same! The choices we make in life always bring us face to face with consequences - good choices, good outcome; bad choices, serious problems.

When you know the truth, the Truth will set you free! Don't ever let the evil one deceive you with his lies that almost always appeal to your flesh. Stay close to the Savior so that you will always hear His voice, then heed His words!

THEY ARE LIFE!
