Your Prayers and Gifts At Work

Between last month and half of this month we (and I include all of you who are giving and praying) were able to put 120 copies of Unconditional Pardon and Mister, Can You Help Me? in our schools and jails. I want to thank you for making this possible.

We continue to receive letters from inmates and emails from students telling us how they have been helped in areas of forgiveness or unforgiveness; issues of trust and love; and in finding hope in seemingly hopeless situations.

Any sacrifice that has been made is being rewarded! We, as a ministry, have stepped out on faith and ordered another 2500 copies of each book, Unconditional Pardon and Mister, Can You Help Me? We know our God is faithful and will supply the needed funds for the printing. HE IS NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH.

Lately, I have been preaching in some extremely needy areas of our country. If it isn't the places ravaged by hurricanes, it's whole counties deep in unemployment. Both fit in the equation for depression, hopelessness, despair and sorrow. Our Jesus is the only One Who can overcome all of these overwhelming emotions. And it is up to all of us who know Him to bring His love to them.

Look around, Folks, we're on the edge of that river. Will you join me as I wade in?

While preaching Revival in Westminster last month, I visited Walhalla Law Center. Thirty-eight inmates were saved and we left 10 copies of Unconditional Pardon there. In attendance were the Chief of Police and the Music Minister of New Hope Baptist Church.

As we visited Union City Middle School in Union City, TN a police officer ran into the auditorium and said there was a report of a bomb in the building. We left the building, waited, fellowshipped with the students, and then returned to the gym. In spite of the "interruption", we had a great time with the students, and a wonderful response from all who were in attendance.

We also visited a drug court rehab where I gave my testimony and message. There 22 inmates were brought to the Lord!

Please send us your Prayer Requests.
