Powerful preaching, exciting worship. The building was packed out the last night of service. Our church was awakened and revived. We needed this!

Best revival we've ever had and the best one I've seen in 35 years of ministry.

Thanks, Bro. Bill.

Our church really needed a time of refreshing and revival. That is exactly what the Lord brought us.

FOLLOW UP REPORT

As a follow up to our story in August about "Joe" in the Habersham County Jail: Joe has been promoted to "Chaplain's Assistant" and is witnessing to anyone who will listen to him in the jail! He has led two to Jesus recently and several others have been saved as well in the last two weeks.

Joe is due to be released as soon as all the hoops have been jumped through. We know that he is looking forward to beginning his new life with his wife and both are excited about attending church and being baptised together.

Please continue to pray for this precious couple and all the lives that were touched by their witness. We know that many others will follow as Joe and his wife exhibit their faithfulness in the Savior.

NOVEMBER 2006

See What God Has Done

It's been a while since I've given you an update on our Revivals. Here are some of the comments from Pastors who have invited us to their Churches and Crusades. As you see, I was also able to visit many schools and prisons. The response in both are so encouraging! Please continue to pray for inmates, their families, and for the students in the public schools across our country. Jesus is their only hope for freedom and safety in a very shakey and uncertain world.

Your faithful giving has allowed us to give 600-700 books in both facilities. Thank you for your vision and trust in the ministry to reach the unreachable.

Your Evangelist,
Bill Saye

Watertown Congregational Methodist Lake City, FL Rev. Randy Ogburn

We visited the Columbia County jail and several inmates responded to Bro. Bill when he asked if they would like to change their lives. This was one of the best revivals our church has ever experienced. People came forward every service and received Christ as their personal Savior. Attendance increased throughout the week with standing room only the last night.

First Baptist Church of Mt. Olive Mt. Olive, AL Rev. Doug Moore

Bill Saye is a very godly man with a timely message. He is able to touch the children, the younger generation and the older generation alike. We had the largest crowds that we have ever had during a Revival. The church was packed every night, and Wednesday when Bro. Bill gave his testimony we had an overflowing crowd. The best thing about Bro. Bill is that he preaches God's Word with power and conviction without compromise. Our people loved him and are looking forward to 2008 when he returns.

Chestnut Grove Baptist Church Grayson, GA Rev. Thomas Jordan

Bro. Bill preached with great anointing and power of the Holy Spirit. Decisions were made every night. Testimony night had the largest attendance.

Northside Baptist Church Elberton, GA Rev. David McConnell

Bro. Bill spoke at our Middle School and did a great job. He also spoke at the jail and had 18 to respond about salvation. We had a great week and look forward to having him again.

Second Baptist Church Union City, TN Rev. Eddie Mallonee

It was a great week with encouraging messages, 12 salvations, 12 baptisms and numerous recommitments.

Eastside Baptist Church Sumter, SC Rev. John T. Baughn

This has been the best week of ministry that I have had at EBC. Many members have said this is the greatest revival the church has had in many years. There were 12 salvations and two rededications in church and 21 salvations in the prison meeting. We had a great response from the students in the schools as well.

Clearmont Baptist Church Westminster, SC Rev. Scott Lee

It was a wonderful experience for myself and our church. Dr. Bill Saye was used of God greatly to revive the people of Clearmont!

Trinity Baptist Church Blytheville, AR Rev. Michael Welch

There were 104 professions of faith in the prisons, three in the schools and 30 recommitments in church. We had a great revival though there were many conflicts such as ballgames, and graduations. We praise the Lord for His mighty work!

Old Liberty Baptist Westminster, SC Rev. Danny Long

Our church really needed a time of refreshing and revival. That is exactly what the Lord brought us.

Cloverdale Baptist Grand Bay, AL Rev. Harold McInnis

It was a real blessing to have Dr. Saye in our church for Revival. God led him to preach the very messages that our church needed to hear and our people were richly blessed. We saw six saved, four for baptism and 22 recommitments. We are already looking forward to his return in two years. Dr. Saye is an anointed servant of God and I highly recommend him to other churches.
