

dilemma. He also said that he believed it was so something bigger could happen for Bill Saye Ministries. He just didn't know what. Bill understandingly told him not to worry about it, just trust God's leading and it will be all right. Bill booked that particular week almost immediately by a church that had a great need. This past week the TV station that had Bro. Bill booked for an interview cancelled and a church in the area had him for Revival the rest of the week seeing several come into the Kingdom who normally do not attend church! God is AWESOME!

Bro. Bill had the opportunity to share all this with a group of pastors at a Pastor's Breakfast last week. He wanted this to encourage them to hear the voice of God and be obedient to it, even when it doesn't make sense.

I say all this to encourage those who are in leadership-decision-making-positions: Don't be discouraged when we're asked to go to plan "B". Trust the One Who sees the BIG picture in this puzzle called Life and knows what He's doing when He moves the pieces and changes the timing. As one of the many pieces, we need to be willing to move, mold, and fit even if it doesn't make any sense. These changes that we see as disruptive, annoying, and even inconvenient are really all part of His Master plan. We need to trust Him. It often means moving closer to the Savior so that we can hear His voice loud and clear. Then we better be ready to obey His command, move as He leads and watch Him do what He does best . . .
